With laughter and joys and lots of Boys,
Then she met Lefty, well that was that
The pyjamas off the big black cat.
A daughter like mine is hard to find
Through joys and sorrow she saw me through
Which always wasn't easy to do.
Her heart is good in times of trial
She always stood like a soldier should.
We pray God be good to our Betty
For many many more Happy Birthdays.

Note [generalNote]: To Lefty: With Apologies to Alfred, Lord Tennyson
"The Charge of Lefty Akman"
Excavate, Excavate

Excavate deeper
 Into the barren soil
 Came abie the "sleeper."
 Upward, upward
 Floor by floor
 On Wellington Crescent
 Hampton Green rises more.
 Problems, problems,
 Was abie dismayed?
 Not fearless Lefty
 He only prayed.
 His not to reason why
 His but to do or die.
 Pressure to the left of him
 Trouble to the right of him
 Torment in front of him
 Crashed and roared.
 Stormed at with calamity and crane
 Boldly he functioned and sane
 Till finally he scored.
 [next page]
 Lack of sleep, broken back
 Nothing does him restrain
 All but the job he holds in disdain.
 The schedule, the schedule
 He must maintain
 His glory will not fade
 O the fierce thrust he made
 All the world him venerate
 For to-day he has reached fifty-eight.

Physical description: Poem typed on paper;
 Two pages, 8.5" x 10.5"

Note [generalNote]: To you my good friends, I have written an ode
 (I hope you're not carrying too big a load)

Bear with me for a very short time
While I present to you my New Year's Rhyme.
To Anna and Abe a mighty salute,
Abe, you do look nice in that new fangled suit
May you keep on producing all those slices
And sell to your friends at discount prices.
Clara and Lou, just across the street,
With you it's mighty nice to meet.
May you have much Naches from your boys,
But remember trials must come with joys.
My favorite cousins, Perle and Jack
To Winnipeg may you always come back.
To have you with us is indeed a pleasure
Even tho' Jack drinks more than just his measure.
Frances and Sid--long time no see,
Do you still remember me?
We missed you much and hope next year,
We'll be to-gether to drink good cheer.
My dear friends Giela and Harry
May your life be always merry
And Giela cater to his every want
For nothing ever did her daunt.
Mollie and Charlie - Rusen is the name,
Which one did you say is bringing fame?
Why the Professor, of course, no doubt of this
When drilling a tooth, may he never miss.
Hi the Setlers, Bert and Fay
How nice to have you here to-day.
Bert can you still catch her whenever you wish
Or is she always stewing about some fancy dish.
Rena and Dave have sure had it rough
May the New Year see the end of that stuff
May you both be happy and have good health
And your just share of worldly wealth.
For Claribel and Saul I wish the best
May she always get enough of rest
To satisfy his healthy, lust appetite
With out having to put up too much of a fight.
[next page]
To future Baba and Zaida Gert and Nate
May you come through that important date
But I still do think that it's a shame
You two could have played the same game.
To the Udows, Laurie and Irene,
May you always be serene
Should you lose a fish or trump your partner's ace with us, I assure you you'll never lose face.

To sister Frances and brother Russell
 I pause amidst all this hustle
 To drink a Lechaim and wish you cheer
 May we celebrate a wedding some time next year.
 And so I come to the end
 Of my little tribute to a friend.
 May we all enjoy Health and Good Luck
 May we all be able to make a buck
 May we all be to-gether to celebrate
 In 1960, is that a date?
 Happy New Year.

Note [generalNote]: In doing good unto others we must hold
 Ourselves back to some extent, we must
 Never thrust and force ourselves or good intentions
 Or well-meaning advice
 On our fellow man. For he is sometimes loathe
 To believe and trust that another's judgement may be better

Than his own. I myself have been at fault
 a great many times. I have given criticism
 Where it had been better not to contribute
 I have offered to assist those who felt they did not require
 Aid in what they were trying to accomplish.
 Thus we must know and realize with whom we are dealing
 For human nature is indeed so variant and so complex
 That it would entail a life's work to explore and discover
 The full meaning and final purpose of only one individual
 Human Being.

Physical description: Poem, typed on paper;
 8.25" x 11"

Note [generalNote]: When I go to bed at night

I say a little prayer
 For all those I hold so tight
 And those who can't see God up there!
 I speak to Him a few words
 For those who have passed on
 I say a little prayer
 For those of us who've gone.
 I pour out my soul to Him
 For those who are not well
 For those who are ill among us
 Who they are we oft can't tell.
 I thank Him in Heaven above
 For the day we've just been through
 For the many blessings bestowed on us
 Whether we be false or true.
 I offer Him my gratitude
 For benefits we've had
 For health, food and shelter
 For Home--wherein the heart is glad.
 He asks for no material thing
 For wares that may cost much

He only asks for us to sing
His praises here on joyful wing
To remind us that He is ever there
Waiting to receive our prayer.

Physical description: Poem typed on paper;
8.25" x 11"

Note [generalNote]: To Elizabeth Sharon
Have you a Fairy in your house
Who flits around quiet as a mouse
Who laughs and plays then laughs some more
Before we, at evening, shut her door.
Her pigtails, she swings from side to side
With sparkling eyes and abundant pride
With nose apug and teeth aglow
'Cause she's able to attempt a show.
Instead of crying, she sucks her thumb
Until that little digit is quite numb.
In spite of this her mouth turns up
I guess from an overflowing cup
Of happiness inside her wee heart
May joy ever be her counterpart!
Yes, we have a Fairy in our house
Who flits around quiet as a mouse
Who indeed gives us so much pleasure
That it cannot be tried with rule or measure.
And if the real truth were but known
She greatly helps to make our house a Home!

Scope and content: Poem written by Betty Akman (nee Wolch) for her daughter, Elizabeth (Beth) Sharon Akman. No date.

Physical description: Poem typed on paper;
8.25" x 11"

Note [generalNote]: Beth Sharon, are you still sleeping
Or are you hiding your wee self
In some corner with thumb in mouth, finger on nose
Grandpa Joe would always say.
For Beth and Joe are the best of friends
Regardless of difference in age, experience and dignity of place.
Understanding in and for one another is not lacking
A common bond of blood and thus love are in evidence
Thruout their whole relationship.
Whether it be that Grandpa Joe sees in this adorable child
His own daughter--myself--at the age of two
Or whether it be some deeper kindred spirit
I will never know . But there comes to mind
That there is something more elusive than blood connection here,
Something deeper upon which we can lay no finger.
Let us not delve too far--let us not question God's "ways among men"
But let us only appreciate and enjoy
This all-pervading atmosphere of Happiness
Exhuded by Beth Sharon and Grandpa Joe.

Note [generalNote]: Bobby! Robert Michael!
Don't run so fast--don't climb
On sofa, chair, radio or frigidaire!
Please, my darling, you are not a monkey
Even though your body may have been descended from apes.

You must protect and guard your linbs
 Your eyes, nose mouth and ears--your brain
 Because my dear son you will be given
 No second chance to replace these parts
 Which are vital to your life. And who knows
 But that they will do you in good stead
 For God would not have blessed you with
 Health and perfection of form had He not Believed you required these things.
 I have great hopes for you, dearest,
 For you, like your wee sister are the Embodiment of your Mother's dream and your

Scope and content: Poem typed on paper, written by Betty Akman (nee Wolch). No date.

Physical description: Poem typed on paper;
 8.25" x 11"

Note [generalNote]: Cleanliness is indeed next and near to godliness!

But we must not make of it too great a thing,
 We must not govern and guide our actions and deeds by this concept.
 To be clean about oneself, one's house and clothing
 Is important--yes--and it is amazing
 When one thinks of the satisfaction derived
 From a glistening floor, a gleaming piece of silver
 A highly polished table.
 But, the thing to be remembered and considered is
 That this kind of contentment is only of some value
 When nothing else is of great import in the home-husband and child
 Is neglected or overlooked.
 Because to be clean of heart, pure of mind and soul
 To have a clear conscience in carrying out
 One's first duty and responsibility is
 The most wonderful thing there is
 And will ultimately bring the most joy and peace
 Not only to oneself, but also to those with whom
 One wants to live!

Needless to tell you we were all concerned [when] we of your recent illness, learned.

It came to us as quite a shock and "Bill" was the only subject of which we could talk you have a lot of friends, Bill (whether you know it or not)

And details of your welfare were constantly being sought.

Phones didn't stop ringing for a second

Time spent making inquiries was not to be reckoned.

All our prayers were not in vain.

You'll soon be with us all again

And with [Hetty} as your chief nurse

We'll all be saying "it could've been worse"

Physical description: Story, pen on paper;
Two sides, 5.75" x 7.5"

Note [generalNote]: Here's to the Simkins - Claribel and Saul

He is without a doubt a living doll!

She we have nick-named Perle [Mesta]

Never getting a chance to take a siesta

He flies home high on cloud nine

Saying "don't worry Claribel - everything will be fine!"

We're having 40 for cocktails and dinner

Tomorrow - 20 for lunch

And if they can come

Next day - about 50 for brunch!

Claribel - (alias Perle) will take it all in her stride

Inner [nervous terrain] - calm and cool outside

When the entertainment is done

"Perle" falls down on her bed

[page side two]

Thinking "Thank God" - they were all very well fed.

And just as she's drifting off to sleep

The door to her room begins to creak -

Here comes Saul -- cholesterol and all

To talk of love + other strange things

Like "getting together" + "[illegible]+[illegible]"

Claribel, having taken various pills

Is on her way to dreamland

Not one thought on vicarious thrills

But - he's still on that cloud

Cannot come down --

Till he snuggles with his "Perle"

Who greets him with a frown

But to pacify Saul (+ incidentally herself)

She moves her "goodam arse" a twitch--not much

And Saul [illegible] gives her a loving [patch]

And [illegible] "Darling" you [illegible]! You're great!

When can we have another date?
