Darling,

Must I chide you again about your very brief but very welcome notes, this one absolutely took the gold plated pen knife for brevity, darling if you are so very busy I wish you wouldn't make yourself any busier to write to me, although I miss your letters so dreadfully if they dont come, but to get down to business, How are you darling in the best of health and spirits I hope, tell your mother that I will write this wek-end without fail and tell her also that I apologise most profusely for not writing her sooner but I am so very busy that I don't even know if I can spare the time to write you, but I do manage don't I?. Darling mother would like to hear from you so you will write won't you Sweetheart I miss you dreadfully so hurry and come over again So that I can show to all the world the sweetest girl in the world and that is not maybe. Darling I guess that I must close now with all the love that is in this world and part of the next to the moon of my delight I remain forever and forever

Give my love to all the folks and tell them that I will writethis ~~xxx~~ week end without fail.

I LOVE YOU

I don't know any more than the one language to write that in otherwise I would use that to I LOVE YOU.
