Dearest

Again I take my pen to tell you that I love you. I am almost positive that I will be in Vancouver on Saturday at about 7 o'clock, <sup>in the evening</sup> you have to wait the minutes until I see you again, say did I tell you not to work so hard the way you sound I'm going to make a nervous wreck, quit it do you hear me

I think you must have as much work to do as I have, I am frightfully busy, with some work I don't understand plus the pay of the fellow's I don't know where I am at my thoughts are continually at 2675 Oak Street do you know what I mean, do roll on Saturday 7 o'clock will you meet me, and listen girl we expect you on the 11th of February and that's not maybe

Well Darling I guess that about all give my love to your mother and tell her the gift she is giving me is yours.

Love to everybody and thank Rose for her kind invitation

With all the love in my heart that is yours forever

Ralph

Did Mr. Louis Stork come to see you

I love you

I've got to say it again I love you
