Min - please come forward.

I have been honored to say a few words as you go out of office.

You have been treasurer for the last 10 years, and a Board member for 3. You have been a Sisterhood and Congregation Schara Tzedek member for many years before that. It has been our gain to have you give your devotion and dedication to our Sisterhood. Many people do not know the amount of work and hours you spent before and after the actual date of our many dinners and lunches that we prepared. There were many lists to type, bills to send, receipts to mail, phone calls to follow to make sure our money came in. You are always at the door with your Committee collecting the money for the Sisterhood and Synagogue functions. These are only a few of the duties you assumed. You invested our money and made sure that we got the best and most return. You always made sure that we spent it wisely. Min did not limit her time to Sisterhood only. Min found time and was always available to help in every way possible in the Synagogue office. She would help with the typing, answering the phone and general office duties. She helped in the average of two days a week where she spent her time typing her Sisterhood lists and doing her books. Her dedication and love for Sisterhood and Synagogue was the central focus point in her life next to her husband and family. It is my pleasure to tell you, Min, we have inscribed your name in the Golden Book in our Synagogue, as follows:

"In deep appreciation for her many years of devoted and invaluable service to the Schara Tzedek Sisterhood. Always ready to give of herself for the benefit of others."

May you have a full and healthy future and remember we all enjoyed your company, and the pleasure was ours to have been able to work together with you all these years.

Sincerely from my heart.
