ON BOARD S.S. _____

March 30 1933

Dearest:

I love you darling
Did I say I was not going to miss you? Well I do miss you already and will be jolly glad to see you on Wednesday. I'm kind of scared and
heroous about it all
but this suspense is really getting awful
and I'll be glad when it will be all over and we'll be settled down to routine.

The boat this trip is late and we don't expect to be in Vancouver until 7.45 pm. so the purser says.

Mother sends her love to her two dear men and darling please also give my love to Dad.

I love you sweetheart with all my heart

Ann
