Dear Morris

I let you know that I have arrived this day safely from San Francisco, and that I am thank God well, I have left all our folks well below, with the exception of Mother, who is getting better.

You will please find enclosed Bill & Steamers receipt for goods shipped to you this day. I have a full assortment on hand for you and you may send down your order in full. The Bar Tumblers are also here, and we will wait them to be ready for shipping by the next Boat, Trusting that you are well and soon to hear from you. I remain your Truly,
Bro
