GROUND - BREAKING CEREMONY

On Sunday, June 15th, a festive crowd of over 200 people witnessed Dr. Sid Kirson, Co-Chairman of the Building Committee, turn over the sod in the first step in the building of our new Synagogue. With greetings from May Brown (representing Mayor Mike Harcourt), Grace McCarthy, songs from our Religious School students, a cantorial solo from Murray Kenig, a message from our Rabbi and Synagogue president, and a closing benediction from Beth Israel's Rabbi Solomon, plus a little sunshine, it was an event we will not forget. Many thanks to all those who helped and participated and a special Todah Rabah to MAXINE GELFANT and MARY SHEININ for coordinating the afternoon.

Toda Rabba

"ANOTHER ISRAEL"

This lively audio-visual presentation offers a colorful montage of the many fascinating aspects of Israel today — people, culture, lifestyles, education, technological advances in science and agriculture, plus more.

Hundreds of color slides projected by 16 projectors onto a giant screen are used to create the panorama that is Israel, from the coast of the Mediterranean to the Jordan River, including the deserts and mountains. The introduction shows Israel's location and size in relation to other countries, as well as emphasizes the unique combination of Jews, Arabs and Christians that make up Israeli society.

Glimpses of Israeli traditions and customs are accompanied by spirited music. The diaspora and return of the Jews to the promised land is also depicted.

This half-hour audio-visual spectacular leaves the viewer with the feeling of having taken a "mini-visit" to Israel, and shows the country in all her bounty and beauty.

THE COLA WAR & ISRAEL

by Simon Alexander

Much has been in the news recently about Coca-Cola Classic, New Coke, Pepsi and who is number one in the Cola War. When such occurrences took place it used to be the vogue to question "Is this good for the Jews?"

The Coke war with Pepsi - how does it affect Israel?"

Israel does have Coca-Cola. We may remember when bottle collectors vied for the Coke bottles from Israel and in fact there were tee shirts with the Israeli Coca-Cola emblem. What about Pepsi or Pepsico, the parent company?

Pepsico products are sold in 148 countries and territories. Pepsico has 49 plants (at last count) in Arab countries, six in the Soviet Union and none in Israel. Pepsico is a major contributor to the Jews for Jesus type college organizations and is our nation's number one lobby against Soviet Jewry.

Pepsico's chairman of the Board and chief executive Officer has also been the Chairman of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce during one of the dirtiest and bloodiest battles launched by industry against Israel and the Jewish Community to "push through" the sale of: (1) AWACS to Saudi Arabia, along with (2) long-range fuel tanks which will enable Saudi planes to reach Israel with a full bomb load, and (3) battle tested air-to-air missiles for use against defending Israeli aircraft. Pepsico distributors also joined the many industrial groups pressuring Congress with a barrage of telegrams urging passage of the AWAC enhancement package to Saudis ("Petro Dollar Connection," New Republic Magazine, 2/17/82).

Also, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce under the chairmanship of the Pepsico Chief Executive Officer sent a contingent of Chamber members to visit Arab lands and bring their "message" back to U.S. groups.

Pepsico and Pizza-Hut (a Pepsico subsidiary) were listed among the larger contributors for "honorariums" to Rep. Paul Findley who is Arafat's spokesman in Congress.

The Pepsico company includes all the Pepsi drinks, Teem, Patio Slice and Mountain Dew. Other operations include Pizza Hut, Taco Bell and Wilson Sporting Goods.

ISRAEL CONTEST

We are pleased to announce the winners of the 1986 ISRAEL I LOVE Contest sponsored by the J.N.F. First prize was awarded to ALEJANDRO PAZ. Second prize was awarded to David Silver and Eddie Karsai. Third prize was awarded to Alexander Baumgard. All grade 7 students participated in the contest.

Hi Gang! I'm your regular Maven's sister-in-law's Ulpan teacher from Hebrew U. here for the month to take in Expo and thought it would be nice tefillin for July..that was some ground-breaking ceremony your Temple arranged! Well done, but my new white lizzard-skin pumps were absolutely ruined by all that dirt the little kids kept flicking around...I sure hope you keep the twin lions at the entrance to the site. Great possibilities for future auctions, raffles, tacky gifts, etc. You should get a few pink flamingoes for the courtyard, too...I was one of the invited guests at the opening of the Canada-Asia Foundation last week and was thrilled to see Wendy Stuart playing her Koto and to hear her hubby Ron narrate. Backstage Wendy said she'll also be performing at the Nitobe Garden at U.B.C. on July 20th at 2:30 p.m. If I can find a sitter, I'll catch that show then zip over to see Joan Stuchner in "Uncle Vanya" and "Private Lives" with the Open Theatre Company. I know the director, but if YOU want more information, call 732-7888....

Moving right along here, guess who's moving to Princeton, N.J. for a year Sabbatical? Chris & Rhoda Friedrichs and their three kids will be spending their time at the Institute for Advanced Study doing research in the School of Historical Studies. I'm not quite sure what that means, but Albert Einstein was at the same institute at one time so it must be quite an honor. We'll miss them and hope they have a good time back east...I'm sure many of you will be travelling to wild and wonderful places this summer, that is, unless you are being bombardozled with out-of-towners for Expo. Among the more exotic I've caught wind of: the Zacks are going to Baltimore, and that's about it...I had a boxed lunch all packed from the Lazy Gourmet for the picnic, and the weather was such a drag...I hope the Lindberger croissantwich will keep until the postponement, which will be announced soon...The Temple is considering opening a gift boutique in the new Oak Pallisades Mall newly named "Kikar Allonim". Featured this week are Free Soviet Jewry T-shirts in Large and Extra-Large for that appealing Esprit look; the Sacred Service Cassettes and Eve Zilberman's cassette. Order now while supplies last! Lehishtameyah...

JUST A NOTE...

Enclosed with your Shofar this month is an envelope and card insert. Many members of the Temple make regular donations to friends and relatives; visitors to our services often ask if there is some way they can thank Temple Sholom. We hope that the new design of the donation card will enable us all to make donations easily. The card may be kept at home until needed, or given to friends. More cards are available in the Temple office.

We have also printed a new Yahrtzeit Card. The new format will enable recipients of the card to practice Tzedakah on the anniversary of a death.
