

Vancouver Jewish Community Centre

2675 Oak at Eleventh

Vancouver, B.C.

December 22, 1931.

Dear Ralph,

Would you believe it! I received a letter from dear old Ralph Fromson a few days ago. It sure was a pleasant surprise, and furthermore, he says that he may be over in Vancouver for New Year.

I can hardly wait!

I think, Ralph old dear, that you probably are the world's worst letter writer. But you are quite likable in spite of all that, and I really will be pleased to see you. (if and when you arrive)

And by the way, please accept my congratulations upon your newly acquired position of dignity, VICE PRESIDENT. Hope you enjoy your term of office, and meet with success in all your undertakings.

Also noticed in the "Bulletin" that you won the bridge prize. More Congratulations to you! You seem to do everything that is being done in Victoria.

I completely forgot to convey your greetings to the dearly beloved Bertha and Becky when I saw them recently. Perhaps I will remember next time I see them.

We are planning a little party on New Year's Eve at my home, and if you are here, would be very glad to have you come. If you want to be very nice to me, you could do so, by writing me as soon as you know whether you are coming or not, and then I can invite one more lady (or not).

(That last sentence is rather involved. Hope you can understand it better than I can) Be nice, anyway, and write.

Wouldn't you like to be here on December 26, at our Mid-Winter Frolic. I suppose you have read about it in the "Bulletin". I really think everyone who is anyone will be here. Of course it all means work to me, but I don't mind. I love to see a little money rolling in. No more papers. Must close.
Kindest greetings. goodbye. Anna

December 22, 1931.

Dear Ralph,

Would you believe it! I received a letter from dear old Ralph Fromson a few days ago. It sure was a pleasant surprise, and furthermore, he says that he may be over in Vancouver for New Year.

I can hardly wait!

I think Ralph old dear, that you probably are the world's worst letter writer. But you are quite likable in spite of all that, and I really will be pleased to see you. (if and when you arrive)

And by the way, please accept my congratulations upon your newly acquired position of dignity, VICE PRESIDENT. Hope you enjoy your term of office, and meet with success in all your undertakings.

Also noticed in the "Bulletin" that you won the bridge prize. More Congratulations to you! You seem to do everything that is being done in Victoria.

I completely forgot to convey your greetings to the dearly beloved Bertha and Becky when I saw them recently. Perhaps I will remember next time I see them.

We are planning a little party on New Year's Eve at my home, and if you are here, would be very glad to have you come. If you want to be very nice to me, you could do so, by writing me as soon as you know whether you are coming or not, and then I can invite one more lady (or not).

(That last sentence is rather involved. Hope you can understand it better than I can) Be nice, anyway, and write.

Wouldn't you like to be here on December 26, at our Mid-Winter Frolic. I suppose you have read about it in the "Bulletin". I really think everyone who is anyone will be here. Of course it all means work to me, but I don't mind. I love to see a little money rolling in.

goodbye Anna

2675 Oak St.
Vancouver, B.C.

Mr. Ralph Fromson,

Signal Hill,

Esquimalt, B.C.