MR. PRESIDENT,

Congratulations to you, dear Ralph, upon your newly gained position of dignity and responsibility.

Heartiest congratulations, and sincere wishes that you may meet with every success in leading your Lodge this coming year.

Now that you have attained all these laurels and honors, please remember to drop a line to a friend once in a while.

I would like my letter to convey to you the same friendly greeting that is signified by a hearty handclasp. I hope you will be happy in doing the wonderful work that you have undertaken, and that you will meet with every success in maintaining the lofty ideals and high principles of the B'nai B'rith Order.

Sincerely,

Anna
