FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR

Predictably, our Shul has suffered a fair amount of wear and tear over the years, but just lately there has been a spate of accidental, but avoidable damage to the building: broken glass in the Sanctuary, a broken water-cooler, a microphone pulled out of its socket on the Bimah, a damaged fire door, etc. etc. None of this is major, but it all adds up and everything costs us money to repair. There have also been some rather disturbing acts of vandalism, an example being - an apple deliberately dropped into one of the toilets - causing a major flood in the men's washroom. It cost us a great deal of money and time to have the apple removed and the mess cleaned up.

This is really an appeal to congregants to help us take better care of the building and its contents. The Shul belongs to all of us. It is an exceptionally aesthetically pleasing place to be and we are very proud that it has become a popular venue for events in the Jewish Community. It would be in all of our best interests to maintain it in its present condition by being more aware of what is going on around us; playing an active role in protecting it. Our children need to be made aware of how important this building is to us. They should learn to respect and care for it. Thank you for your co-operation with this.

INDEX

By Randy Herschaft
A Sense Of Unity?

When controversial Orthodox Rabbi Abraham Hecht recently commented "The truth is, I would feel more at home with the Pope than with a Reform rabbi," it exposed a deep schism within the Jewish community. In a survey of rabbis and rabbinical students, a significant percent found that it is easier to speak to non-Jews than with those of their own faith.

Statement: Dialogue with non-Jews is easier than with Jews.

AGREE %

	Rabbis	Rabbinical Students

Orthodox	41	42
Conservative	46	55
Reform	55	58
Reconstructionist	47	40

New Year Giving

New Year cards made by the children at the Junior Services were donated to the kosher Meals-On-Wheels program to be given out with the trays. Throughout the year, there will be opportunities for the students to distribute their work in this way . . . . .

Greeting Card Project

Students have been drawing pictures of Jewish symbols and Festivals. The Ways and Means committee of the Temple Board is choosing several pictures to be printed and sold as greeting cards in our Judaica Shop. These should be ready in time for Chanukah.

Music

We have obtained some sheet music for piano and other instruments at various levels. We would like the music played by students at our various concerts to be appropriate to the occasion. If your child would like to play at the Chanukah Concert, please see his/her teacher about selecting some music so that they will have plenty of time to prepare.

A NEW "Consecration Tradition"

Our annual Consecration Ceremony at Simchat Torah was enhanced this year by the presentations of 'wimpels' created by parents and given to their children. Our first wimpel (personalized Torah binder) workshop was a huge success due to the brave and enthusiastic participation of: Ted Shiffman, Paul Deyong, Lori Roth, Abbe Chivers, Judy Losberg, William Wood, Mary Louise Albert, and Susan Blake. Due to overwhelming demand, this workshop will be repeated in January.

Wednesday Program Changes

In response to requests for more Hebrew on Wednesday afternoons, we have decided to offer three different Hebrew classes. Students in Grades 4 to 6 may choose:

- Hebrew fun and games
- Hebrew through prayer
- Conversational Hebrew through song.

The second half of each session will be in class groupings as usual.

Please note that we would like to discourage the consumption of soft drinks and candy on Wednesday afternoons. If it is brought to school, it must be kept until after class. Cheese and crackers are provided at no cost.

Al Shlosa Devarim - Grade 7 Family Program

The Grade 7 nine-week parent participation program in preparation for Bar and Bat Mitzvah has commenced. Families study each of three subjects for three weeks each. The session on Torah is led by Jerry Growe, Prayer by Stephen Aberle, and, Gemilut Chasadim (good deeds) by Rabbi Bregman. Families enjoy a Brunch together before each session. Details of this program are in demand by Educators throughout North America who wish to implement the same thing in their synagogues.

YOUTH GROUP

UPDATE:

The Temple Sholom Youthgroup's first two events were a blast and excitement is building. . .

this year and

From October 6th - 8th, we went to Yakima, Washington for a Leadership Training Institute. (or L.T.I.) The weekend got us all geared up for the coming year. We learned fresh ways of getting new members and how to be prepared for anything. !!

This October 22nd, we had a Simpsons/Seinfeld Marathon. At this event we discussed Judaism in Entertainment.

Temple Sholom Youth (TSY) is part of NFTY Northwest. This is our district of the North American wide NFTY - the youth secession of the UAHC. Three times a year, Fall, Winter and Spring, NFTY Northwest has conclaves. This month, we will be attending the Fall Veida (conclave) held at Camp Solomon Schechter in Olympia, Washington. The theme is B'Tzelem Elohim: We are all created in God's image.

If any Temple youth between grades 8 - 12 would like to join TSY, you will receive a warm welcome at any of our events. We promise! For more information, please call out President, Daniel Mikelberg at 266-5447.

Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are very special times at Temple. A lot of its success comes from the myriad of volunteers who give willingly of their time, before, during and after Services. We would like to acknowledge the following:

OUR CONGREGATIONAL FAMILY

CALLING ALL VETERANS

Once again, Temple Sholom is compiling a list of veterans of the Canadian Armed Forces and veterans of the Allied Forces who are members of Temple Sholom. In addition, names of family members who gave their lives in the service of their country are also requested. This list will include those who have served their country and have died in peacetime. This list will be read at our special Remembrance Day Observance during Services on Friday, November 10th at 8:15 pm. At this Service, veterans are requested to wear service medals and the congregation is requested to wear their poppies. Please call the Office if you have names for this list.

Entertainment Books

The Temple Office has received the newest and latest 1995/96 Entertainment Book and is now selling them at $46 - the same price as last year. Please support the Temple in this venture as it is a good fund-raiser for us and offers great savings for you. Put a sign up in your Office, tell your friends and neighbors about the bargains available. If you are planning a winter vacation, they are great for hotels as well - all over North America.

Left-overs

There are a number of dishes and containers that appeared for Break-the Fast that have not yet been claimed, nor have names attached for us to contact the owner. We ask that if you bring to the Temple, which is something that has become traditional on many occasions throughout the year, that you either bring your food in a container that you no longer want, or mark it in such a way that we can call you. In any case, if it is left here over a period of 30 days, we become attached, and it becomes a part of our kitchen inventory. We know that a lot of these dishes are valuable, and we would like them to be reclaimed. On the other hand, we occasionally have this problem: taken in error? Anne & Eric Andrew have lost a precious Finnish glass plate - large, with an irregular edge. It was a wedding present and they would love to have it back. Please check your cupboards. It is possible this plate looks just like one of yours, but on closer inspection you realize it is not. Thank you for your help with this.

Jewish Food Bank

On behalf of all the recipients of the Jewish Food Bank, a thank you to the members of Temple Sholom for their on-going contributions of food to the Food Bank. A special thank you for the food donations during High Holy Days. Your caring and sharing really does make a difference. for information, call Sara at 325-4810.
