Darling Ann

at last I am all cleared up for the week end and it sure is a good and glorious glorious feeling, can you imagine 11 o'clock Thursday morning and nothing to do except routine yet I feel so happy I can almost sing. I think you will see my exultation by my writing. Darling my heart keeps singing Ann, all the time, I ~~dreamt~~ dreamt of you last night and Saturday my dreams will be realized, oh, will Saturday never come

Will you please stop worrying about my eyes they'll be OK at least OK enough to see you darling

With sweet love & kisses ~~all~~ with Saturday

Love from everybody & everybody

with all my heart I love you
