

Mar 20/37

Dearest Ralph.

I love you Ralph.
How are you feeling sweetheart? Hope
your headaches are
not troubling you
any more.

Darling I'll be so happy to be with you on Wednesday.
Don't forget sweetheart, you'll have to be an early-bird on Wednesday and greet me at 7 am. I'll be ready on time

my love.

I'm writing in such a hurry darling
that I'm afraid you'll
not be able to read
it.

Give my love to mother dearest. I'm leaving the house
in a few minutes
to meet your daddy.
Darling, he's expected
to stay at Poole's so

I'll just talk him
out of the Belmont Hotel idea.

Just close sweetheart.
Can't tell you how much I love you,
but I want to assure you that it is plenty-enough.

I love you darling
with all my heart.

When I arrive on Wednesday sweetheart

we'll talk over
the many things that you think so very important. Am in such a rush dearest that won't even tell you
about the shopping that I've done.

I love you now
and forever my darling
Ann
