

2675 Oak St.,
Vancouver, B.C.
January 5, 1932.

Dearest Ralph,

My New Year's Resolution is still holding good, and I am maintaining my record, to write to precious you every day.

Will you be here on the week-end of the 14th or the 21st. Darling I have not yet regained my equilibrium. I feel all up in the air, and want you to be here as soon as possible.

My sister has assured me that she will be glad to have you as her house guest. She has a spare room, which we haven't. Her home is only a ten-minute walk from my home, so we can spend a lot of time both places.

I know that you are going to be very busy this week end, but I want you to write me a long letter anyway.

Are you very excited about the Installation? I wish I could be there. I would be so proud of you. Send me a copy of your speech. I want to know what your message is.

I hope you will be here on the 14th of January dear Ralph. But please let me know definitely. I want to plan some entertainment - want you to meet a few of my friends, and above all, I want to see you again myself. I love you truly, Ralph.

Must stop my day-dreaming immediately, and get back to work. It has been so difficult to work because I am thinking of you all the time.

Good-bye - Auf Weider Sehen!

Ann